May 5th is Boy's Day

Boy's Day is a tradition brought to Hawaii by immigrants from Japan in the late 19th and early 20th century. The Japanese celebrated their little boys on May 5th and prayed for their continued good health.

Boy's Day (Tango no Sekku) has been renamed "Children's Day" (Kodomo no Hi) in Japan. Although it is a holiday for both boys and girls now, the traditional observances are almost exclusively for boys.

Families fly colorful carp (Koinobori) to express the hope that their boys will grow up healthy and strong. In Japan, the carp is a symbol of strength, courage, and success.

The traditional treat for the day is called Kashiwa mochi, sweet mochi wrapped in Kashiwa leaves. In Hawaii, a commonly eaten sweet treat for boy's and girl's day is chi chi dango.
